Taize service on 4 August with L'Arche

On Sunday 4 August we will have a Taize service with members of the L'Arche community. Tea and cake will be served from 15.00 with the service starting at 16.00. L'Arche is an international Christian organisation with communities where people with and without learning disabilities live together.

On 4 August our local L'Arche community celebrates their 55th anniversary and this will be great opportunity to celebrate with them.
